

Puterbaugh, John. March and Countermarch: Letters from a Union Soldiers, May 14, 1861--April 3, 1862. Edited by Ruth H. Kilbourn. Grants Pass, Oreg.: R. H. Kilbourn, 1995.

Co. K, 15th Illinois

Circus and soldiers, 2
Enlistment, term of service, 4
Officer election, 6
Drunken soldier, guard house, 8, 10, 23
Shooting accident, 10, 17
Deserter, 12
July 4, 13
Uniforms, 15
Religious meeting, 21
Beer, Germans, drunk, 21-22
Food, water, 26
Secessionists, rebels, 27
Food, hardtack, 27-28
Soldier pay, 28
Jefferson Barracks, 31
Swearing, 31-32, 35
Civilian shoots at soldiers stealing his grapes and is to be executed, 34
Battle of Wilson's Creek, 36
Fremont's army in Missouri, 49
Jefferson City, Missouri, 49-50
Grant, Halleck, Missouri, march and countermarch, 60
Whiskey, 61
Missouri guerrillas, 68-69
Christmas, food, 71
Disease, winter, 74
Soldier from Price's army, 77
Wants out of Missouri, little prospect of fight, an unhealthy place, cowardly Unionists, 82
Heavy death toll from disease, fever, 84
Cold weather, stoves, 87
Jennison, guerrillas, 88
Snowball fight, 89
John Pope, 90
Mud, 92
Small pox vaccination, 95
Anxious to fight to put down the rebellion but kept in Missouri in idleness, 96
Criticism of Grant, 98
Pillaging, foraging, Pope's orders, 99
Whiskey, 101
Fort Donelson, 104-
Dead bodies, burial, 106-7
Troops being transported on Tennessee River, 112

Shiloh, 114ff

Soldier life, 120

Burial of a soldier, 121

Death of Puterbaugh, 123ff