

Huckaby, Elizabeth Paisley and Ethel C. Simpson, eds. Tulip Evermore: Emma Butler and William Paisley, Their Lives in Letters, 1857-1887. Fayetteville: University of Arkansas Press, 1985.

Protracted meeting, church, sermons, 23-24
Christmas, 24
Hymn singing and Bible reading in camp, 26
College students drilling, 27
Hatred of Lincoln and Seward and cabinet, 28
Food prices, 31
Conscription, 31-32
Colonel not a Christian, swearing, 33
Deserters, 35
Robert E. Lee and Cooke's brigade, 35
Bristoe Station, 37
Longstreet and Knoxville campaign, 38
Soldiers, immoral, swearing, killing hogs for no purpose, 38
Talks to a soldier who has strayed from the faith, 38-39
Meeting of Longstreet's chaplains, religious meetings, 39
East Tennessee women, chew, smoke, curse, swear, 40
Chaplain frustrated, 41
Religious meetings, 41
Protracted religious meeting, chaplains, 41-42
Confederate fighting well, Robert E. Lee, 43
Reconstruction meetings in Arkansas, 44
Religious meetings, soldiers show much interest, 45-46
Petersburg campaign, 44ff
Food shortages, 51
Religion and hope of heaven, chapel, men professing religion in camp, 52
Petersburg, charges, still confident, 55
Morale deserters, 57