

Christ, Mark K., ed. Getting Used to Being Shot At: The Spence Family Civil War Letters. Fayetteville: University of Arkansas Press, 2002.

Lincoln, confidence, 5
Knives to fight Yankees at close quarters, 9
Food, prices, 9
Women at home, food prices, 12
Chaplain, little preaching, 141
1st Arkansas, two-year enlistment, 16
Wilson's Creek, 29
Shiloh, wound, 39-40
Stones River, Murfreesboro, 50-51
Bragg's Kentucky campaign, 51-52
Furlough application rejected, 53
Poor officers, 54
Food, prices, 67, 71
Tullahoma campaign, 66ff
Desertions, 70
Chickamauga, Chattanooga, 72-74
Ringgold Gap, 75-
Desertions, 75
Food, clothing, prices, 76
Johnston, Furlough, 90
Confidence, Cleburne's Division, 91-92
Confederate abandonment of Arkansas, 92
Needs money and a slave in camp, 92
Atlanta campaign, 94ff
Retreat but high morale, 94-95
Yankees are cowardly and often drunk, 95
Desertion to federals, 96
Removal of Johnston, appointment of Hood, 97-98
Sherman, confidence in Hood, 100
Death of his best friend in the army, 101
Hood, Sherman, loss of Atlanta, 102-4
Tennessee campaign, Franklin, 106-117
Wants to visit Arkansas after campaign is over, 107
Decatur, Alabama, Sand Mountain, Florence, 108-9
Poison Spring, 123-27