

Hoyle, Joseph J. “Deliver Us from This Cruel War”: The Civil War Letters of Lieutenant Joseph J. Hoyle, 55th North Carolina Infantry. Edited by Jeffrey M. Givan. Jefferson, N.C.: McFarland, 2010.

Lonely for wife, 54-55
Peninsula campaign, Jefferson Davis, family, 55
Love, prospect of death, 63
Battle, Washington, N.C. 66-68
Hoyle, sermon, 69-71
Request for exemption, 80
Chimney, 81
Fredericksburg, 87-88
Chaplain, religion, 88
Small pox, 89-90
Extortioners, 91
Exemption bill, 92-93
Clothing, 94
Railroads, furlough, 96
Fast, Humiliation, and prayer, 101
Letters, 102
Camp life, vice, 104
Gettysburg, 117-50
Religion, 120
Morale, 133
Dysentery, 143
Morale, religion, 145
Morale, Confederacy, 152
Mine Run, 152
Deserter, execution, 157-58, 161
Reenlistment, 160
Separation, God’s will, 161
Prayer meetings, preaching, 164
God and Confederacy, 165
Confederate morale, religion, 166
Overland campaign, 170
Wilderness, 177
Spotsylvania Courthouse, 178ff
Petersburg, 182ff
Wound and death, 186-90