

Applegate, John S. Reminiscences and Letters of George Arrowsmith of New Jersey, Late Lieutenant-Colonel of the One Hundred and Fifty-Seventh Regiment, New York State Volunteers. Red Bank, N.J.: John H. Cook, 1893.

Outrage at southern sympathizer and enlistment, 28-29
Women and supplies for soldiers, 33-34
Flag presentation, 36-37
Food, 38-39
Drilling, 40-41
Women, donations for soldiers, 42
Heat, over-packed knapsacks, 45-46
Tents, 47
Food and cooking, 49-50
First Bull Run, 52-60
Alexandria, Virginia, 53, 87-89
Retreat from Bull Run, 54-55
McDowell, 56
New York Herald, newspaper account of battle, 57-58
Lincoln, McClellan, McDowell, 64
McClellan energy, 68
Secessionists near Washington, 68
Quality of Confederate forces, 69
Swearing teamsters, 75
Volunteers vs. regulars, 76-77
Rich favored in officer appointments, 77
Destruction of a bridge, 79-85
Soldier pay, Confederate morale, 85-86
Speculates about possibility of battle, autumn 1861, 90
Mount Vernon, 97-100
Muskets and Springfield rifles, 100
Pohich church skirmish, 102-3
Winter quarters, 104-5
Alcohol, 105
Seizing of Confederate property, 105-6
Dull camp life, 109
Women sending clothing and blankets, 110
Chaplain, no denominational divisions, 114-15
Review of troops, 116-17
Chaplain and temperance society, 118
Thanksgiving, boxes, turkeys from home, 118-19
Alexandria, deserters, 120
Jews, Yankees, soldier pay, 120
Fort Lyon, 123ff
McDowell, Fredericksburg, 128-30
Potential of Virginia farm land under northern cultivation, 133
Confederates and United States flag, 133-34

McDowell and Valley campaign, 138
Confederate prisoners, citizens, oath, 139-40
Federals wounded, 140-41
Warrenton, 146-49
Assistant Adjutant General duties, 152-53
Cedar Mountain, 154-55
Second Bull Run, 156-63
Carl Schurz, 75
Sigel's corps, 178
Washington described, 178-81
Fed by southerners who thought they were Confederates, 186-87
Mud, 188
Chancellorsville, 193-205
Gettysburg, 206-26
Confident of not being killed, 211
Death of Arrowsmith, 214-26
Funeral sermon, 237-47