

Vance, Zebulon Baird. The Papers of Zebulon Baird Vance. Edited by Joe A. Mobley. Raleigh, N.C.: Office of Archives and History, 2013.

Vol. 3, 1864-65

Confederate impressment, prices, 1-2

Alcohol, burning stills, 3

Robbers, murder, 3-4

Graham, Holden, conservative party, peace, 5

Blockade runners, 6-7, 14-15, 20-23

Holden, convention, peace, women and children, food, 7-9

Seddon, impressments, 9-10

Cotton loan, North Carolina to Confederate War Department, 11, 13, 31, 40

Conscripts, deserters, 12

John Gilmer, convention, Whigs, conservatives, need for unity, Congress, 16-18

Government cotton, 23-24

Cotton, blockade runner, 25-26

Confederates in northern prisons, 27, 58-59, 80

Jefferson Davis, discontent in North Carolina, peace negotiations, slaves, emancipation, 27-30

University of North Carolina, 32

Substitute, arrest, 33

Blockade runners, 33-35

Seddon, Lane's Brigade of North Carolina troops, 35-36

Seddon, conduct of Confederate cavalry, 38-39

Richmond Pearson, deserters, habeas corpus, 41-43

Senate appointment, 20, 43-44, 48-50, 53, 56-57

Seddon, Alcohol, whiskey, 44-45

Francis Lawley, Jefferson Davis, cabinet, military prospects, 45-47

Blockade runner, 51-52, 56

Joseph Brown, disloyalty, convention, peace, 54-55

Arrest on disloyalty charges, 57-58

Washington's Birthday, speech, 60-61

Woolen goods, 61-62

Raising troops, 62-63

Jefferson Davis, arrest of disloyal citizen, 64

Alcohol distilling, 65

Habeas corpus

Davis letter to Vance, North Carolina congressional delegation, 66-69, 73

Joseph Brown, cotton tax, 68

Blockade runners, 70-72, 74, 76-79, 81, 88-89

Cotton, 75

Seddon, conscription, arrest, 81-82

Holden, 85

Judicial decisions, habeas corpus, 86

Yankee raid, 90

Cotton cards, blockade, 91-92

Davis, habeas corpus, conscription, impressment, 93-95

Food, starvation, 95-96

Peace, habeas corpus, unionism, conscription, Davis, 97-100

Blockade runners, 100-102

Senator Reade, convention, secessionists, Holden, 103-104
 Blockade running, 104-6,110-11
 Cotton loan, 106
 Food, officer rations, 107
 Conservative division, Holden, 109
 Clingman, reelection, Holden, division, 111-13
 Merrimon, Confederate government, presidential power, conscription, 113-15
 Blockade cotton, shipment, 117
 Richmond Pierson, substitution, 117-18
 Gilmer, substitutes, 119
 Conscription, habeas corpus, 120
 Vance speeches, convention, 121
 Davis, denies not appointing anti-secessionists, conscription, impressment, disloyal North Carolinians, 122-25, 140-45, 161-63
 Habeas corpus, 125-27
 Arrest of deserters, confiscation, Memminger, 127-28, 138
 Cotton, 130
 Conscription, exemption of state officials, 131, 145-46
 Graham, 131
 Seddon, conscription, Richmond Pearson, habeas corpus, 132-33
 Blockade running, 134, 139-40, 146
 Conscription, substitution, Seddon, Richmond Pearson, habeas corpus, 134-35
 Speech, Holden, secession, 136-37
 Seddon, conscription, 137
 Slave impressment, 147, 154
 Impressment, railroad iron, 148
 William "Extra Billy" Smith, exemption of state officials, conscription, 149-50
 Davis, blockade running, 151-53
 Vance visit to the army, Holden, Richmond Pearson, 154-56, 168
 Impressment, corn, 156-57, 160
 Arrest of deserter, 157
 Blockade runners, Davis, 158-60, 164-65
 Arrest of citizen, 165-66
 Ships, cotton, blockade, 166-67
 Blockade, cotton, regulations, 169-70, 172-73
 Vance, suspending conscription, 170-71, 185-86
 Governor election, Holden, speaking, 173-74
 Blockade runner, 174-75, 179
 Conscription, substitution, 175-76
 Gilmer, Holden, governor election, peace, secessionists, habeas corpus, 176-78
 Disloyal man, 178-80
 Impressment, 180
 Troops for western North Carolina, 181
 Habeas corpus. 181-82
 Braxton Bragg, Plymouth, 182-83
 Whiting, salt works, conscripts, 184, 186-87
 Beauregard, slave prisoners, Plymouth, 185
 Whiting, slave impressment, 186-87

Cotton, 189
Conscription, exemption, 189
Conscription, exemption, Seddon, 190-92
Whiting, slave impressment, 192-93
Conscription, exemption of state officials, 193-94, 196-200, 205-7, 218-20
State and Confederate cotton, 194-95
Graham, blockade regulations, 195-96
Graham, overland campaign, 200-1
Captured flag, 20th North Carolina gallantry, 201-3
Whiting, salt works, 203-4, 207-8, 216-18
Home guard thefts, 204
Governor and appointment of officers for state troops, Samuel Cooper, 209-11
Slave convicted of rape, pardon, 212-13
Troops for mountains, 215-16, 220
Railroad iron, 221
Habeas corpus, 222
North Carolina troops, 223-24
Postal service for troops, 224-25
Correspondence between Vance and Davis, 225-26
Salt works, 226-27
Governor election, Holden, Vance vote in regiment, 227, 233
Military court, deserters, 228
Blockade regulations, 229-232
Robert E. Lee, Holden, Vance, governor election, 234-35
Gilmer, railroad iron, 236
Salt, 237-39
Holden supporters, disloyalty, 239
Cornelia Spencer, cotton cards, poor women, 240-41
Railroads, 241-42
Proclamation, desertion, 242-44
Rosin, 245-46
Salt, 247
Deserters, 247-48
Lee, attack on Wilmington, 248-49, 253
Ironclads, 250
Cloth for soldiers, 250
Confederate government and North Carolina troops, 251-52
Home guard arms, Beaufort, 252
Railroad, 254
Peace, Georgia, diplomacy, disloyalty, 255
Rape, 256
Cotton, 257
Railroad, 258-60
Railroad iron, 260-61
Lee. Wilmington defenses, Beaufort, 262
Plymouth prisoners, 263
Transportation for vegetables for soldiers, 264
Confederate government, officers for state troops, 265-68

Railroad iron, 269-70
 Salt works, 270-71
 Aliens and conscription, 271-72
 Cotton and woolen mills, labor, 273-74
 Blockade running, 274
 Conscription, exemption, Quakers, 275
 Beauregard, salt works, Whiting, 277
 Disloyal persons, 278
 Morale, military affairs, Lee, 279-80
 Meeting of Confederate governors, desertion, morale, 281-82, 287-88. 291, 301-2
 Wilmington forts, labor, forts, 282-83
 Salt, 284
 David Swain, loss of Atlanta, deserters, University of North Carolina, 285-86
 Defense of Wilmington, 289-90, 292
 Brown, exemption of state officials, 290
 Whiting, railroad, salt works, blockade runner, 293-94
 Council of state, 295, 297
 Salt works, 296
 Robert E. Lee, North Carolina regiments, prisoners, 298
 John Milton, convention of governors, 299
 Whiting, defense of Wilmington, 300
 Confederate government call for men, 301
 Drafting of state officials, 303
 D. H. Hill, defense of Wilmington, 303-4
 E. J. Hale, defense of Petersburg, North Carolina troops for Confederacy, 304-5
 Salt works, 306
 Conscription, under age, 306
 Wilmington, blockade runners, 307
 Brother as prisoner, Fort Delaware, 308, 319-20
 Agent in Europe, 309
 Supplies for prisoners, 310, 320
 Bragg, Traitors at salt works, 310-11
 Blockade runners, 311-12
 D. H. Hill, 312
 Treasury, clothing for troops, 313
 Conscription, details, 314-15
 Arrest of citizen, 317
 Arrest, trading with the enemy, 318
 Salt, 319
 Blankets, 321
 Defense of Wilmington, 321
 Robert E. Lee, Home Guards, 321-22
 John C. Breckinridge, Mountainous North Carolina, home guards, Confederate troops, 322-23
 Prisoner supplies, 323
 Blockade runners, 324
 Conscription, state officers, 325
 Guarding prisoners, 326
 Arrest of disloyal men, 326-27

Trenholm, clerks to trenches, 327-28
 Battle flag, 328-29
 Cloth, 329
 Governors, blockade runners, 330-31
 Salt works, 332
 Wilmington defenses, 333-38
 Conscription, 333-34
 Prices, hospital women, 338-39
 Slave impressment, 340
 North Carolina prisoners, 341
 Graham peace resolutions, 341-42
 Salt, 343-49
 Sherman, 344
 Prisoners, 348
 Cavalry, horse stealing, 350-51
 Arrest of disloyal, taken out of state, 351-52
 Appointment of geologist, 352-53
 Prisoners, 353
 Food for soldiers, 355
 Slave impressment, 356-57
 Murder, 357-58
 Tithe corn, 360-61
 Vance proclamation calling for people to repel the invaders, 361-62
 Unfit men being conscripted, 362
 Disabled veterans, 363
 Vance inaugural address, fears division, 363-65
 Graham, dissension in North Carolina, military situation, 365-67
 Wilmington defenses, 367-69
 Blockade, defense, impressment of coal, 369-72
 Robert E. Lee, railroads, 372-73, 377-78
 Mallory, blockade runner, 374-76
 Wilmington, free black labor, Whiting, 376
 Fort Fisher, 378-79
 Foraging, thieving by Confederate soldiers, 379-81
 Robert E. Lee, newspapers, commercial transactions, 382
 Conscription expenses, 383
 Bragg, Fort Fisher, 384
 Alcohol, 384, 386-87
 William "Extra Billy" Smith, railroads, 385
 Salt, 387
 Magrath, patriotism, division, Joseph E. Johnston, convention, desertion, 388-89, 398-401
 Joseph Brown, divisions, convention, peace, Davis, 390-91
 Prisoner exchange, Ould, 392-93
 David Swain, Sherman's march, popular opinion on the war, military prospects, 393-95
 North Carolina soldiers in Lee's army, suffering of women and children at home, 395-96
 David Swain, convention, 396-97
 Mallory, blockade running, 401-4, 415-17
 Graham, Hampton Roads conference, 405

William "Extra Billy" Smith, Blair, peace rumors, Hampton Roads, 406-7, 422-24
Bradley Johnson, Yankee prisoners, 408-9, 411-12, 415, 417-19
Thirteenth Amendment, 409-10
Calvin Wiley, slavery reform, 411
Alcohol, Seddon, 414
Graham, Alexander Stephens, Davis, peace, Hampton Roads, slaves, 420-21
Railroads, 422
Proclamation, origins of the war, peace negotiations, Hampton Roads, Lincoln proclamation, revolutionary tradition, liberty, 424-30
John Gilmer, Alexander Stephens, peace, 430-31
Slave soldiers, 432
Robert E. Lee, Hoke, 433
Lee, Bragg, supplies, 433-34
Lee, civilian morale, desertion, 435
Sherman in North Carolina, 436ff
Capture of Wilmington, blockade running, 438
North Carolina food and supplies for army, railroads, 439-40
Railroad gauge, 441, 447, 454, 456, 459
Arrest by Confederate officials, 441-42
Lee, desertion, public meetings, 443
Slave murder, 444
Moving records, 445
Joe Johnston, wagons, defense of Raleigh, 445
Remove slaves from path of Yankees, 446
Railroad iron, 449
Impressment of wagons, 449
Johnston, Bragg, Kinston, 450
Lee, Vance proclamation, morale, Johnston, reinforcements, deserters, 450-51
Council of State, 451-53, 457
Joe Johnston, alcohol, 453
Communications by Davis to Congress in secret session, Breckinridge, 454-55
Johnston, impressment, 457-58
Outrages by Confederate troops, 458
Sherman, surrender of Raleigh, 460-62
Davis, little hope for Lee's army, plans to visit Vance at Raleigh, 460-61
Quartermaster stores, stolen, 463-64, 480-81, 485-86
Johnston, depredations by Confederate troops, 467
Johnston, anarchy in North Carolina, truce, Sherman, 468-71
Johnston, State property, 472-76
State property, 478-79, 482-86
Sherman-Johnston surrender, 481-82
Vance proclamation on surrender of armies, 489-90
Postwar letters from Harriet Espy Vance, 493-97
Oath, 498