

Hobbs, Thomas Hubbard. The Journals of Thomas Hubbard Hobbs. Edited by Faye Acton Axford. University: University of Alabama Press, 1976.

9th Alabama Infantry, Captain

Secession and crisis in Washington, 225

Fasting, humiliation, and prayer, 225

Secession, 226

Opposition to secession in a couple counties, 226-27

William Lowndes Yancey, 227

Limestone County, secession, Yancey, burned in effigy, 228-29

Limestone County and discussion of reconstruction, 230-34

Enlistment and departure, 235-36

Troops travel by train, Texans, 236

Regimental organization, 237

General Robert Patterson, 238

First Manassas, 239

Casualties, sight of dead Yankees on battlefield, 239-40

Federal prisoners, 240

Harpers Ferry, 242

Captain arrested, alcohol, 242

Had to destroy some Confederate property, 244

Ball's Bluff, 245-46

Officer election, 246

William Nelson Pendleton sermon, Yankee graffiti in church, 248-49

Trent affair, Mason and Slidell, 249, 251

Foraging, 249

Court martial duty, 250ff

Christmas, 250

Little prospect for peace, Joseph Johnston, 251

Food, 251

Mill Springs, Zollicoffer death, 251-52

Gustavus W. Smith, 252

Death at Gainses's Mill, 253