

Bradford, Peleg, Jr. No Place for Little Boys: Civil War Letters of a Union Soldier. Edited by Melissa MacCrae and Maureen Bradford. Brewer, Maine: Goddess Publications, 1997.

Sorry Bill has enlisted, hard times here, 3
Fighting at Harpers Ferry, 4-5
Food, 5
Money received from home, 11
Soldier deaths, measles, 11
Drilling six hours day, 11-12
Rumor of Stonewall Jackson advancing on Washington, 18
Boxes, 19
Does not want a young man to come here, 29
Old minister preaching, 31
Shells, target practice, 31
Chance of getting wife, black women, 35
Criticizes one man's choice of wife, 39
Gettysburg campaign, 41ff
His politics the same as when he left home and thinks the war a humbug, 49
Some guarding conscripts, 50
Conscription, 51
Work, routine, 53
Republicans, 53
Tell his brother not to join the army, 54, 59
Execution, deserter, 54
Clothes, box, 56
Doctors neglected sick men, 63
Alcohol, 71
Hospital, men dying all around him, 79
Food, 82
Losses in regiment Harris Farm, 85
Hospital, right leg amputated, 89ff
Letters, furlough, 96
Death of brother, 102
Fall of Petersburg and Richmond, 104