

Johnson, Charles F. The Long Roll: Being a Journal of the Civil War, As Set Down during the Years 1861-1863 by Charles F. Johnson, Sometime of Hawkins Zouaves. East Aurora, N.Y.: Roycrofters, 1911.

Uniform, 10
Passes, 10-11
Head shaved of Zouave fashion, 12
Women gifts for soldiers, 12-13
Sergeant comes at him with a knife, 13-14
Picket duty, 19
Big Bethel, 22-
Lack of discipline, 23
Escaped slave, 24
Troops plundering, 25
Southern whites have fled, only slaves left, 26
Sawyer gun, 28, 44-45
Bull Run, 33-34
Shooting accidents, 45-46
Hatteras, 44ff
Forts, 48-50
Duties, schedule, 60
Turning a young undisciplined boy into a soldier, 61
Officers, weaknesses, 63-64
Drowned sergeant, death, burial, 73-74
Colonel Hawkins under arrest, artillery, 80-81
Christmas, 81
Books, 83-84
Chaplain, 84
Escaped slaves, 84-85
Roanoke Island, 88ff
Wounded soldiers, 92-93
Slave servants, intelligence information, 101
Bullet struck soldier belt plate and he was unhurt, 101
Burning of Winton, North Carolina, 102-7
Hawkins, Zoave uniforms, 111
Hawkins, alcohol, officers, temperance, 111-12
Elizabeth city, deserted and partially burned, 113-14
Burnside, 116-17
Battle of Camden, 116ff
Black woman, slave, hoe cakes, 121-22
Hospital, 137-38
Furlough, 139-49
Theater, camp play, 151
Service with the Ninth Corps, 166ff
Second Bull Run, Manassas campaign, 170ff
Rumor about McDowell and Sigel, 174

Sioux uprising in Minnesota, 174-75, 178
Antietam campaign, 180ff
South Mountain, 180-87
Dog tents, 180
Battle of Antietam, 188-96
Confederate dead along of march, 188
Wounded, hospital, 196-207
Lincoln, 203
St. Patrick's Day, 219
Sutler food, Newport News, 222-23
Playing cards, euchre, 224
Lt. Col. Murdered by General Corcoran, 228-30
Siege of Suffolk, Fort Nansemond, 230ff