

Pardee, George K. My Dear Carrie: The Civil War Letters of George K. Pardee and Family.
Edited by Robert H. Jones. Akron, Oh.: Summit County Historical Society Press, 1994.

Duty, 7
Slaves, 10-11
Tents, 19
Complaining woman, 20
Love letter, 21
*Destroy property, drive off rebels, 24
Guerrillas, burning, 25
Christmas, 26-27
Brutality, 31
Fraternization, 31
Confederate, Methodist preachers, 32-33
Bed bugs, lice, 34
Vicksburg canal, 38-39, 48, 51, 58-59, 62
Emancipation, 38
Chickasaw Bluff, 41-42
William T. Sherman, 41, 51
Sexual purity, wife, 45-46
Food, 47
Dead, burial, 48
Soldier life, 48
Vallandigham, 49
*Soldiers and emancipation, 49-50
French mediation, 53
Copperheads, 57
Conscription, 59
Death of nurse, 60
Destruction, 62
Lincoln, call out more troops, 63
*Nature of war, 67
Reading, 71
*Army's moral effect, 71-72
Widows at home, 74
Sutler, prices, 75
Vicksburg, 77ff
Foraging, 77
*Vallandigham, 85
Confederate morale, 87
Women, food, 89
Siege of Vicksburg, 93ff
Confederate morale, 98
Women, 98
*Female slaves, Union soldiers, 111
Copperheads, Vallandigham, 120

Slaves, 122
Ohio governor's election, Vallandigham, 123
Slave woman, 131
Garfield, Rosecrans, 131-33
Conscription, 144, 151-52
*Costs of war, 145
Christmas, 148
Lincoln and reconstruction, 149
Southern women and children, 152-54
Home, reenlistment, duty, 158, 162
Lincoln and Conscription, 173
Republicans, election of 1864, 180, 184
Nathaniel P. Banks, 185-86, 189, 198, 204
Baton Rouge, 186
Union prisoners, 192-93
William H. Emory, 213
Vallandigham, 215
Lincoln, abolitionists, election of 1864, 216-19
*Faithfulness, women, 221-22
Poor women and children, 227
Conscription, 235
Sherman and black soldiers, 239
Election of 1864, 239
McClellan, 239-40