

Conolly, Thomas. An Irishman in Dixie: Thomas Conolly's Diary of the Fall of the Confederacy. Edited by Nelson D. Lankford. Columbia: University of South Carolina Press, 1988.

Large South Carolina family with many in Confederate army, 27
Fayetteville, 29-30
Sherman and Cheraw, 32
North Carolina, Joseph Johnston, 33
Raleigh, Zebulon Vance, 34-35
Richmond, 37ff
People on Richmond streets described, 37-38
Refugee women in Richmond, 39
St. Paul's Church, Jefferson Davis, 42
Jefferson Davis and Congress, 43-44
Jefferson Davis described, 47-48
Varina Davis, 48
James Longstreet, 48
Petersburg, 51-52
Robert E. Lee described, 52
Robert E. Lee's staff, dining, 55-56
Robert E. Lee and defenses of Richmond, 57
"Torpedo", Raphael Semmes, 63-66
St. Paul's Charles Minnigerode sermon, 67
Robert E. Lee, Winfield Scott, 70-71
St. Paul's, Jefferson Davis, evacuation of Richmond, 82-84
Lincoln assassination, 99