

Sumner, Charles. The Selected Letters of Charles Sumner. Edited by Beverly Wilson Palmer. 2 vols. Boston: Northeastern University Press, 1990.

Vol. 2

Lawyers and politicians, 20

Lincoln, Seward, Sumner, Chicago convention nomination, 23-24

Law, barbarism of slavery, Lewis Tappan, 26

Crime Against Kansas speech, 29-30

Fugitive slave law, 31-32

Election, Lincoln, secession threats, 34

Seward, 37

Secession, 37ff

Secession and possible civil war, 38-39

Thurlow Weed, Lincoln, Winfield Scott, 40-41

Scott, Seward, 42

John A. Andrew, no compromise, 43, 47-48

Fears compromise and surrender, 44

Massachusetts men need to stand firm, 46

Massachusetts, Buchanan, Crittenden compromise, 50-51

Personal liberty laws, 51-52

Fort Sumter, forts, 53

Virginia secession election, 54

New Mexico compromise, 55-57

Lincoln, 59

Lincoln and office seekers, 64

Seward influence, 64

Lincoln and war, 65

Northern unity, Lincoln, 69

John Lothrop Motley, 70-71

Congressional session, legislation, 71-72

Blockade, 73

Bull Run defeat, Lincoln, 74

Cameron and contrabands, 75

Lincoln, duty of emancipation, 76

William Howard Russell, Bull Run, 76-78

Slavery, Frémont, Lincoln, 79

Frémont, 80

Wendell Phillips, Sumner speech on slavery, 80

Slavery, English opinion, emancipation, Cameron, contraband order, 81-87

War, slavery, tariff, 82

Trent affair, Mason and Slidell, 85-94

Charles Stone, 95

Lieber, Stanton, Trent affair, 98

Stanton, 99

Lincoln, Chase, 100

Davis and Lincoln, 101

Andrew, McClellan, Lincoln, 103
 Establishing territorial governments in rebel states, 103-8
 Fugitive slaves, 104
 Slavery, emancipation in Washington, 109
 McClellan, Yorktown, 110
 Lincoln, McClellan, Blair, Stanton, 112
 Saxton and emancipation, 113
 Emancipation of Confederate independence, 114
 McClellan, Stanton, Lincoln, 114-15
 Emancipation inevitable, 115
 Lincoln and administration panic over Jackson in the Valley, 116
 McClellan on Peninsula, 118
 Edward Stanly, Seward, 118
 Seward, short war, 119
 Future of states and slavery, 119-20
 Congress, Lincoln, cabinet, 122
 Lincoln, Frémont, 123
 Brownson, emancipation, 124
 Emancipation Proclamation, 126-28
 Thurlow Weed, 129
 New York elections, Seymour, 130
 Elections, Lincoln, Seward, Weed, 131-32
 Burnside, 132
 Fredericksburg, cabinet crisis, 133-34
 Freedmen, black troops, Stanton, 134-36
 Lincoln and Emancipation Proclamation, 135-36
 Benjamin F. Butler, 139
 Lincoln, signing Emancipation Proclamation, 139-40
 Army at Fredericksburg, 141
 Seward, cabinet, French mediation, 143-44
 Foreign intervention in the war, 144-45
 Brooks-Sumner affair, Mason, Davis, Toombs, 146
 Letters of marque, Montgomery Blair, 146-47, 150-53
 Confederate commerce raider Alabama, 147
 Seward, very critical, 148-49
 England should have supported Union, ignored moral nature of the cause, 154
 Charleston, 155-56
 English policy, 160-62 [much correspondence in this volume with Englishmen]
 American Freedmen's Inquiry Commission, 163
 Lord Lyons and Democrats, 164-65
 Seward, American diplomats in England and France, 167-68
 British and French policy, 175-76
 Army of the Potomac, 177
 Lincoln, black troops, threats of violence against them, 178
 Conscription, Seymour, 179
 Stanton, 180

Seward, amnesty, slavery, 184
 Abolition of slavery by proclamation, 185
 Possible retreat on slavery, Weed, Seward, Lincoln, 186
 Course of war, slavery, 189
 Lincoln, Conkling letter, 190
 England and France, 191-92, 195, 205-212
 Rosecrans, 195
 Northern prosperity, 195-96
 Congress reducing southern states to territories, 196
 Montgomery Blair, Reconstruction, 204-5
 African American troops, pay, 212-13
 Lincoln, emancipation, reconstruction, 216-17
 Reconstruction, Confederate debt, compensation, 217
 Length of war, Grant, 230
 Civil Service examinations, 232-33
 Freedmen's Bureau, 233-34
 Fugitive slave laws, 236, 248
 African American troops, 237
 Republican convention, 238, 249
 Freedmen's Bureau, 238
 Butler, Banks, Louisiana, reconstruction, 239
 Mexico, France, 239-40
 Seward, Lincoln, reading, 239-40
 Banks, Louisiana, 250
 Charles Stone, 245
 Higginson, African American troops, 245-46
 Lincoln, Republican convention, 251
 Andrew Johnson, 252
 Democratic platform, Chicago convention, 253
 Chase, 253
 Chase, Chief Justice, 254-57
 Slavery, emancipation, 256
 Edward Everett, 260-61
 Butler, Fort Fisher, 261-62
 Lincoln, Louisiana reconstruction, Banks, 262
 Blair mission to Richmond, 266
 Andrew Johnson, drunkenness. 272
 Reconstruction, Lincoln, Louisiana, 173-74
 Lord Lyons, British-American relations, 277-80
 Lincoln, reconstruction, Virginia, 282
 Lincoln, Stanton, Virginia, reconstruction, 284
 Lincoln assassination, slavery, 294-97
 Andrew Johnson, 297