

Andrews, Marietta Minnigerode. Scraps of Paper. New York: E. P. Dutton, 1929.

McClellan. Seven Days, 16-17, 39, 42-43
Confiscation Act, Yankee foragers seeking meat, 17-18
Yankees putting Unionists in unoccupied houses, 20
Yankees foraging for salt pork, German, confrontation with woman, 21-23
Death of Ashby, 24, 43-44
Conversation with Union officers, 26-27
Valley campaign, 27ff
Disloyal slaves, 29
Stolen horse, 31-35
Food for slaves, 38
European recognition, foreign mediation, 39
Seven Days casualties, God, 40
Slave girl ran away when about to be whipped, 40-41
McClellan, northern finances, northern morale, Morgan, 46
Confederate ram Arkansas, 47
Pope proclamation, 48
Oath, 48
Slaves planning to run off to Yankees, 51
Hardened to death and suffering, 53
Pope, oath, 53
Hiring out slave, burying a slave, 54-55
Yankees come and did not behave that badly, 55-56
Second Manassas, 57ff
Hatred of Union government that has caused suffering, 61
Confederate stragglers, 61
Children deaths, diphtheria, 63
Yankees arrive, animals taken, 65-67
Yankee chaplain, 67
Slaves indignant at Yankees, 67-68
Women and soldiers, 70
Davis and food production, 71
Mosby raids, 71-74
Richmond prices, 72
Chancellorsville, Jackson, 75
Rumors of Yankees, hiding meat, 76

Civil War Letters of Charles Minnigerode, ADC to Fitz Lee, much information on Fitzhugh Lee

Report of Johnston advancing toward Washington, 93
Food, 94
Stuart, Lee, Burnside, Mud March, 97
Boots, 104
Death of Jackson, 108
Reports of his death, 113

Chancellorsville, 113-14
Death of Jackson, 115
Mosby, 117
Picnic, women, flirting, 118
Cavalry review, 119, 125
Brandy Station, 125ff
Life preserved in battle, God, 128
Gettysburg, 150
Lee's plans, 154-55
Bishop Johns sermon, religious service, 138
Lee's plans, 143
Death of soldier, religion, 145-46, 150-51
Presbyterians, dancing, 156
Appomattox, left for dead, 158-61
Civil War surgery, 171-96
Recollections of Robert E. Lee, 197-205
Mosby, 218-19
Confederate seal, 235-42