

Quimby, George W. The Perfect Scout: A Soldier's Memoir of the Great March to the Sea and the Campaign of the Carolinas. Edited by Anne Sarah Rubin and Stephen Murphy. Tuscaloosa: University of Alabama Press, 2018.

Civil War scouts, 5-6
Qualifications, 6
Payment and provisions, 7-8
Foraging, 8-9
Scouting procedures, 9-10
Signals, 10
Griffin's scouts, Fayetteville, Georgia, 11
Judson Kilpatrick, 13
Kilpatrick and Griffin, 14-18
Horse, 17
Atlanta refugee, doctor, 19-21
Slave, buried alcohol, 23-24
Milledgeville, 23-
Disguised in Confederate uniforms, 27-28
Foraging, 28-29
Texas Rangers, 30-37
O. O. Howard, 30, 40
Missouri Jawhawkers, 38
Woman complains about Yankee atrocities, 38-39
Foragers, 38-39
Alcohol, 39-40
Women, music, peach wine, 41-42
Killing dogs, 42
Slaves to warn of approaching Confederates, 42-43
Destroying railroad bridges, 44
Ferry, 45
Millen, Georgia, 48-51
Slaves provide intelligence, 48-49
Piney woods, pine cones, 52-53
Horses, 54-55
Among Confederate cavalry, prisoner, 56-58
Rape, Howard, canoe, 58-60
Fort McAllister, General Howard, 62-72
On flag ship, 72-74
Fort McAllister captured, 75-78
Siege of Savannah, 79
Strange black man stealing from Union camp servants, 83
Stealing money and taking it home, 83-84
Carolinas campaign, 93ff
Vengeance against South Carolina, 93ff
Straggler, 95
Crossing a creek, 97-100

Foraging, 101-3
Indian, 104-5
Orders to burn a house, women, 104-6
Mascots in various companies, 108-9
Seizing Confederate weapons, 110
Pontoon bridge on Congaree River, 113-115
Fire in Columbia, 116-18
Charging pickets, wounded, 123-26
Plantation, foraging, 135-38
Wound recovery 139-41
Conversation with Sherman, Howard, dispatches to Wilmington,
141-45
Dispatches to General Terry, intelligence from slaves, 146-59
Goldsboro, 160-63
Destruction of property, Georgia vs. Carolinas campaign, 165-70
The word “rebel,” 169-70