

Phillips, Ulrich B., ed. The Correspondence of Robert Toombs, Alexander H. Stephens, and Howell Cobb. Washington, D.C.: American Historical Association, 1913.

Linton and growing support for Douglas, 500
Saddened by northern elections results, blames this on Buchanan break with Douglas, 501
Stephens speaking for Douglas, secessionists, 501-2
Georgia, election, Breckinridge, not surprised by Lincoln's election, 502-3
Stephens, Hopes for maintaining rights in the Union, dangers of revolution, 504-5
Cobb, secession, Lincoln, Republicans, black equality, fugitive slave law, 505-16
Cobb resigns from cabinet, does not blame Buchanan, 518-19
Cobb, speaking for secession elections, 518-19
Robert Toombs, on the crisis and secession, timing, 519-22
William Henry Trescott, secession, 522
Mrs. Jacob Thompson on resignations and excitement in Washington, society, 522-24
Howell Cobb, speaking appointments, 524
Robert Toombs, Republicans rejected all compromise including Crittenden proposal, committee of thirteen, 525
Shot and shell for Confederate government, 525-26
Stephens, colonization, constitution, secession of Georgia likely, 526
Toombs on cabinet resignations, 528
William Porcher Miles, secession, Sumter, resistance, 528-29
William Henry Trescott, cabinet resignations, Buchanan, Anderson, Sumter, secession of Georgia, organization of a southern government, 530-31
Jacob Thompson, Buchanan, Holt, Star of the West, Sumter, Winfield Scott, secession, new confederacy, 531-33
Texas, secession, Houston hostile, 533
Raphael Semmes, serve in Confederate navy, light houses, 533-35, 546-47
Border-state unionism, manufacturing, Mississippi navigation, 535-36
Augustus R. Wright, secession commissioner, Maryland, 536
Howell Cobb, Montgomery convention, presidency, Jefferson Davis, 536-37
Compromise prospects, 538
Confederacy, Georgia, trade policy, forts, 538-40
Thompson resignation, secession in Georgia, census bureau patronage, 540-41
Peaceable secession, attitude in Washington, Confederate patronage, 541-42
Joseph Brown, military appointments, 543
Winfield Scott, Buchanan, Lincoln, need for secession of Virginia, 543-44
Cobb, Jefferson Davis inaugural address, cabinet formation, 544
Northern newspaper editor moving south, 544-45
Tariff, Mississippi River, 545-46
Baltimore and Lincoln, 546
Colt revolver for Mrs. Cobb, 547
North Carolina convention and unionism, 547-48
Northern politics, warlike Republicans, Democrats, 548-49
Confederate loan, France, England, free trade, Confederate money, 549-51
Patronage, seeking office, 551-52
Tariffs, free trade, popular ratification of constitution, taxes, forts, 552-54

Cobb letter to Buchanan, election of Lincoln, secession, 554-55
 Cotton, shipping, free trade, constitution popular ratification, suffrage, 555-58
 Arkansas, Washington policy, military situation, Virginia, loan, 558-59
 New Orleans, volunteer companies, Catholic cathedral, opposition to reconstruction, 559-60
 Georgia governor's election, Joe Brown, 560
 Northern reaction to firing on Sumter, Democrats, submit constitution to popular vote, Texas, should hang Houston, 561-62
 Toombs, troops and Norfolk Navy Yard, 562-63
 Stephens, Confederates for peace, no choice but fire on Sumter, peace terms, 563-64
 Augustus Longstreet, Confederate tariff, free trade, 564-65
 Joseph Brown, Georgia, coast defense, 565
 Virginia and East Tennessee, 565-66
 University of Georgia, 566-68
 Cobb, upper South secession, 568
 Cobb, likely quarrel between Jefferson Davis and Joseph Brown, 568
 Toombs, Stephens, Produce loan, shortage of arms, Missouri, Kentucky, 568-70
 Joseph Brown, state troops, Jefferson Davis, 571-74
 Toombs, generalship, 573
 Cobb, northern morale post Manassas, short war, 573
 Toombs, Johnston, need to attack Washington, Davis, 575-76
 Brown, Stephens, governor's election, 576-77, 580
 Toombs, Benjamin, Johnston, West Point, 577-78
 Davis, generals, inaction, Toombs, 579
 Measles, 578-79
 Criticism of Davis, 580-81
 Thomas W. Thomas on fall 1861 movements in northern Virginia, 581-83
 Food, clothing and logistics questions, 582-83
 Howell Cobb, operations around Yorktown, 583-85
 Criticism of Jefferson Davis in the army, 586-87
 Howell Cobb, Fort Donelson, 588
 Howell Cobb, General Wool exchange of prisoners, 587-89
 Robert Toombs, Davis, Lee, Secretary of War, 590
 Howell Cobb, faith in Lee as a commander, 590-91
 Robert Toombs, criticizes Davis on Post Office, Navy, Patronage, weakness of small Senate, 592
 Robert Toombs, Favors concentration of troops with Johnston and Beauregard and let them move into Tennessee, 592-93
 Robert Toombs great crisis in defense of Richmond, spring 1862, 593
 Howell Cobb, Peninsula, Warwick River, 594
 Robert Toombs, disease and retreat on Peninsula, blames officers, deplors unwillingness to fight, and Davis, 593-95
 Thomas W. Thomas, wants to edit Constitutionalist, 595-96
 Papers of the Provisional congress, 596-97, 599, 602-3
 Joseph Brown, states' rights, Davis, militia, conscription, 597-98
 Robert Toombs, Gaines's Mill, Magruder, Seven Days, 599-601

Slaves, high prices to shoes, 602
 Conscription exemption, 603
 Robert Toombs, Second Manassas campaign, arrested, Longstreet, 603-5
 Joseph Brown, military despotism, Bragg, martial law, 605
 Howell Cobb, Antietam campaign, 606-7
 Robert Toombs, senatorial elections, Know Nothings in legislature, Jefferson Davis, legislature, criticism of Brown, 607-9
 Death of Thomas R. R. Cobb at Fredericksburg, 609
 Gubernatorial election, Joseph E. Brown, Linton Stephens, Toombs 610-11, 614, 617-18
 Robert Toombs, resignation from army, 611-14
 Howell Cobb, early peace delusions, planting cotton, 613
 Howell Cobb, Yankees in Jacksonville, Florida, 613-15
 Howell Cobb, declines to become Quartermaster General, 616-17
 Robert Toombs, running for Congress, wants to block Davis, worried about Vicksburg, Johnston, Pemberton, 619-20
 Thomas W. Thomas, Conscription and exemption for his brother in law, 620
 Robert Toombs, gloomy, thinking of going back into army, Brown, weak volunteering, 621
 Joseph Brown, call for Stephens to speak, despondence; a reconstruction party, 621-22
 Robert Toombs, newspaper letter, Confederate government failed to tax, too much paper money, gold standard, loans, bonds, 622-27
 Joseph E. Brown, short supplies for army, need for fixed prices, 627-28
 Joseph Brown, gubernatorial election, Joshua Hill, 628
 Robert Toombs, Jefferson Davis, conscription, some of the best officers killed by blunders, fall of Vicksburg, 628-29
 Robert Toombs, candidate for senate, 629
 Howell Cobb, need for brains in Richmond, Congress, 631
 Joseph E. Brown, Lincoln, abolition, ten percent plan 632
 Joseph E. Brown, war against him at Richmond, railroad, 632,
 Joseph E. Brown, habeas corpus, 633
 Benjamin Hill, 634
 Benjamin Hill, Joe Brown's message, change of administration, negotiations, abolition, defeat Lincoln in election, habeas corpus, Jefferson Davis, 634-37
 Robert Toombs, government's financial policy, habeas corpus, 637-39
 Joseph Brown, Stephens speech on habeas corpus, Howell Cobb, Jefferson Davis, 639-41
 Joseph E. Brown, Cobb and army meetings condemning Brown, 641
 Joseph Brown, criticism of his message, 641-42
 Joseph Brown, Confederate party in Georgia, Howell Cobb, Toombs, 643
 Joseph Brown, Johnston, Toombs, troops, 644
 Joseph Brown, Constitutionalist newspaper, 644
 John Winder, Howell Cobb, desertions at Andersonville, 644-45
 Howell Cobb, Athens, Atlanta, Johnston, 645-46
 Howell Cobb, Yankees raiding in Alabama, heading toward Columbia, Georgia, 646-48
 Howell Cobb, Joseph Johnston and wife, Atlanta, 747
 Howell Cobb, rumors about Atlanta, removal of Johnston, 648
 Howell Cobb, fighting around Atlanta, death of McPherson, 649
 Joseph Brown, Johnston, Hood, militia, 649-50

Military situation in Florida, Confederate prospects, generally, 650-51
Robert Toombs, defenses of Atlanta, Wheeler, Hood, Davis, 651-52
Robert Toombs, Joseph E. Brown, Sherman, Jefferson Davis and peace issue, 652-53
Joseph E. Brown, reply to Sherman, Vance, meeting of governors, 653-54
Brown, Henry G. Cole and plot to blow up powder works, 654
Alexander H. Stephens, states' rights, nullification, right of secession, 654-55
Howell Cobb, burning of Atlanta, Sherman's march, 655-56
Howell Cobb, arming slaves, Lee, Brown, Davis, 656-58
Robert Toombs, reported despondency in Richmond, Brown, impressment, 660-61
Toombs, Congress, Davis, mood in Richmond, 661
Jefferson Davis, faction, message, hostility in Congress, 661-52
Joseph Brown, conference, restoration of the Union 662
Howell Cobb, slaves behaving well, 662-63