

Stevens, Walter B. A Reporter's Lincoln. Edited by Michael Burlingame. Lincoln: University of Nebraska Press, 1998.

Lincoln and New Salem, Jack Armstrong, 3-12
Illinois lawyers, 12
Illinois capital, Vandalia, Springfield, Lincoln, 13-15
Lincoln-Shields duel, 15-20
Duff Armstrong murder case, 21-24
Grant alcohol, 24-25
Lincoln and speech writing, 25-26
Lincoln, Whigs, and Republicans, alcohol, rail splitting, 26-31
Douglas and Lincoln, 1859, 31-32
Lincoln, Eighth Circuit, autobiographical statement, 32-37
Bloomington Republican convention, 1856, 37-47
Lincoln, philosopher statesman, debate, 47-51
Kindness to young men, 51-52
Lincoln, jury, land case, 52-53
Lincoln and the Lost Speech, 53-54
Lincoln and Robert at Phillips Exeter, 55-56
Lincoln and Douglas at Alton, 56-59
Lincoln in Bloomington, 59-62
Jesse W. Fell, Lincoln-Douglas debates, 62-64
Election day, 1860, Trumbull, Edward Baker, 64-65
Lincoln's scrapbook, Lincoln-Douglas debates, 65-90
William McKinley's Lincoln story, 90
Studying German, 91
Lincoln and standard gauge railroad, 91-92
Bloomington, bowl of custard for visiting lawyers, Lincoln's dress, election victory, 92-95
Lincoln-Douglas debates, 95
Lincoln visit to Phillips-Exeter, 96
Lincoln speaks of his own deficiency at a reception, 97
Lincoln popularity with neighborhood boys, 98
Lincoln and Douglas, Kansas Nebraska Act, 99-100
Lincoln as a lawyer, 101
Lincoln, son Robert, and Tad, 102-3
Grant, cotton trading, 104
Lincoln-Douglas debates, 104-5
Penmanship and writing, Lincoln endorsement in Bixby collection, 105-7
Phillips-Exeter, speech at Cooper Institute, 109-110
Robert Todd Lincoln and the assassination, 110
Courtship and home life, wedding, 110-120
William T. Baker, Lincoln as rail splitter and in Black Hawk War, 123-5
Building a boat on the Sangamon River, 125
Lincoln and alcohol, 126-27
Lincoln ancestors, 127-28
Lincoln and law case in Hancock County, Mormons, 129-31

Lincoln and Ellsworth, 131-38
 Whigs in 1848, 138-39
 Lincoln's sense of humor, 139-40
 Playing ball with Lincoln, 140-41
 Honest Abe, 141-42
 Farewell speech at Springfield, 142-43
 Lincoln and radical Unionists in Missouri, 143-51
 Lincoln in Indianapolis, 151-52
 Shelby M. Cullom, Lincoln appearance, local patronage, James G. Blaine, 152-55
 Stealing Lincoln's body, 155-56
 Lincoln's reticence after the election, 156-57
 Lincoln honor in politics, declines governorship of Oregon, 157-58
 Lincoln in Charleston, Illinois, 159
 Mary Lincoln, 159-60
 Visitors to Lincoln sites in Springfield, 160-63
 Lincoln's depression, speaker, 163-64
 1844 Clay convention, 164-65
 Temperance lecture, 165
 Lincoln greets bride, attends church, abolition newspapers, 165-66
 Funeral sermon for Lincoln's father, 166-67
 Dennis Hanks, teaching Lincoln to read, illegitimate birth, 167-70
 Lincoln and compensated emancipation, 170-73
 Lincoln's Lost Speech, storytelling, Douglas, 173-74
 Lincoln as storyteller, 174-77
 Journey from Springfield to Washington, 177-78
 Thomas Lincoln, Helms, 178-87
 Lincoln shows people in Springfield how to mow, 187-88
 Lincoln and relatives in Hancock County, 188-90
 Lincoln funeral, 190
 New Salem, Denton Offut, 190-92
 Lincoln and Tad, 192-93
 Departure from Springfield, 193
 Lincoln, Mary Lincoln, and blackberries, 193-94
 Lincoln at Carthage, 194-95
 Bloomington, 1856 Frémont campaign, 195-96
 Republican convention of 1860, Kansas delegates, 196-201
 Lincoln-Douglas debates, 201-2
 Lincoln's largest fee, railroad, 203-4
 Lincoln and Douglas, 204-5
 Storytelling, 205
 Riding circuit, first game of billiards, 205-7
 Meeting with president, Arkansans, shortly before the inauguration, 206-9
 Lincoln and Republican party, 1856, 220-21
 Adlai E. Stevenson, Bloomington, Lincoln the lawyer, Lincoln-Douglas debates, humor, 212-18
 Lincoln described, 218
 Lincoln, Hancock County, Illinois, rail splitting, 218-24

Charleston, Lincoln-Douglas debate, 224-26

Benjamin S. Edwards, recollections of Lincoln and Mary Todd Lincoln, 227-28

Accuracy of newspaper accounts of Lincoln-Douglas debates, 229-236

Lincoln's meeting with Missouri Radicals, September 30, 1863, 237-44