

Trumbull, Henry Clay. The Knightly Soldier: A Biography of Major Henry Ward.
Philadelphia: John D. Wattles, 1892.
10th Connecticut. Infantry

Secession, 35-36
Prayer meeting, swearing, religion, 40-41
Thoughts on eve of battle, 48
Roanoke Island, 48ff
Experience of battle, 50-52, 64-65
Possible European intervention, 57
Slave woman, 67
Peninsula campaign, 72-73
Fugitive slaves, 74-76
Fighting for Union more than against slavery, emancipation, 77-79
Religion, 79-84
Hospital, 85-86
Chaplain Henry Clay Trumbull, 89-90
Foraging, 95
Charleston, 102ff
Prayer meeting, Sunday school, 105ff
Card playing and alcohol, 107-9
James Island and Fort Wagner, 127ff
Picketing James Island, 130ff
Taken prisoner, 147ff
Prison and escape, 149-96.
Libby Prison, 197-10
Escape plan, 199
Army of the James, 210ff
Bermuda Hundred, 212ff
Fraternization, 225-26
Shelling, 234-35
Shooting, bullets, close calls, 241
Wounded men, 243
Deserter, execution, 250-55
Petersburg trenches, sharpshooting, 275
Artillery firing, capture of Atlanta celebrated, 282-83
Death Major Ward, 286-308
Eulogies, 309-23