

Reid, Whitelaw. A Radical View: The "Agate" Dispatches of Whitelaw Reid, 1861-1865.
Edited by James G. Smart. 2 vols. Memphis, Tenn.: Memphis State University Press, 1976.

Volume I

Western Virginia, Wheeling, 12-14
Ohio regiments, shoddy uniforms, 14-15
Philippi Races, Indiana troops, General Lander, 15-21
McClellan and General Thomas A. Morris, 21-22
Impatient for progress, strategy in western Virginia, McClellan, German soldiers, 22-25
People in western Virginia, Philippi, 25-28
Carrick's Ford, Laurel Hill, Cheat Mountain, Ohio and Indiana troops, Colonel Steedman,
General Morris, 28-37
Failure of McClellan's strategy in western Virginia, 38-39
Rosecrans, Robert E. Lee in western Virginia, Cheat Mountain, Clarksburg, 39-42
Carnifex Ferry, Rosecrans, William Sooy Smith, McCook, various Ohio regiments, Colonel
Lowe, German troops, 42-61
Frederick Lander's column, 61-63
Romney, B&O railroad, McClellan, Winchester, Lander, 63-66
Lexington, Frankfort, Clay and Taylor families, Henry Clay son arrested on treason charge, 67-69
Camp Dick Robinson, Zollicoffer, 69-71
Buckner, Hardee, Louisville, campaign in Kentucky, Sherman, McCook, 71-73
Nolin Creek, Louisville and Nashville Railroad, Buckner, Rousseau, Zollicoffer, 73-78
Administration inconsistent, need for a policy in Kentucky, Sherman, 78-79
Sherman insanity, 79-81
Kentucky Unionist, Cameron and slave confiscation, 81-87
Nashville line, Bucker, Albert Sidney Johnston, 87-89
Kentucky after Bragg invasion, Unionism in Kentucky, 89-93
Confederate opinion in Kentucky after the Confederate retreat, Bragg, Kirby Smith, 93-96
John Hunt Morgan's raid, 96-101
Opinion in Buell's army after Bragg's campaign, Danville, General Charles C. Gilbert,
Rousseau, 101-3
Expedition from Cairo, 106-7
Fort Donelson aftermath, surgeons, praise for Lincoln and Halleck, Cairo, 107-9
Passes, embargo, 110
Clarksville, Tennessee, Unionism, Gideon Pillow, General Charles F. Smith, 111-14
Nashville, 114-17
Murfreesboro, 117-18
Expedition to Pittsburg Landing, 118-19
Battle of Shiloh, 121-71
Aftermath of Shiloh, 171-73
Halleck's strategy, 173-75
Corinth, 175-77
Express companies, information leaks, Benjamin F. Kelley, Grafton, 180-82
Rosecrans, Carnifex Ferry, 182
Confederate knowledge of Federal movements in Western Virginia, John B. Floyd, 183-84

Cincinnati newspapers, press censorship, Sherman, 184-85
Lorenzo Thomas, information on troop strength, 186-88
Halleck war on the newspapers, Chicago Tribune, 188-97
Right to report, government and the press, 197-201
Stanton, official statements, newspapers, General Wadsworth, General Dix, 201-4
Thaddeus Stevens and the Press, 204-6
Strategy and McClellan's army, Lincoln, radical Republicans, 207-10
McClellan's plan, August 1862, 210-212
Lincoln and Greeley, 213-15
Second Bull Run, John Pope, Fitz John Porter, Franklin, Sumner, McClellan, Lincoln, 216-25
Dictatorship, Lincoln, eastern newspapers, 225-29
Antietam, 229-33
Emancipation Proclamation, Cassius Clay, 233-39
Monitor, foundered off Hatteras, 239-41
Revolution, Halleck, Burnside, Fredericksburg, cabinet crisis, 241-54
French mediation, 254-55
Finance, Treasury, 255-57
Spring 1863, Confederate strength, 257-58
Charleston Harbor and Richmond, 258-60
Joseph Hooker, 260-61
Chancellorsville, 262-71
Starving the rebellion, Francis Leiber, Grierson raid, 271-74

Volume 2

Invasion of Pennsylvania, Vallyandigham convention, Washington, 1-4
Gettysburg, Lee's escape, 5-69
David Hunter and black soldiers, 71-74
Lincoln and black soldiers, 74-75
Liability of black soldiers, 75-76
House debate on enlisting black soldiers, 76-94
How to get black soldiers, 94-95
Philadelphia raises black soldiers, 96-97
Stanton, slaves rights to Confederate land, 97-98
Washington, blacks and public transportation, 98-99
Black citizenship, 99-101
Black soldiers, 101-2
Second Confiscation Act, military government, 103-5
Reconstruction questions, Louisiana, Chase, 105-9
Lincoln message on Reconstruction, 109-111
Louisiana and reconstruction, 111-13, 116-18
Arkansas and Reconstruction, 113-14
Bayard Test Oath, reconstruction, 114-16
James Garfield and confiscation, 118-20
Anna E. Dickinson, 121-24
Federal debt, 124-27
Clement Vallandigham, 127-30

October 1863, Virginia campaign, Meade, 130-32
Removal of Rosecrans, Crittenden, McCook, Negley, 132-47
Chickamauga, 147-49
Strength of Confederate army, opportunity, 149-51
Lincoln at Gettysburg, 151-52
1864 election, Chase movement, 152-55
Grant and the 1864 campaign, overland campaign, Wilderness, Spotsylvania, 155-61
Republican convention, Missouri radicals, admission of Confederate states, Lincoln nomination, Andrew Johnson, 161-72
Democratic convention, platform, McClellan nomination, 172-76
Sheridan, Valley campaign, 1864, 176-81
Hood and Confederate failure, 181-82
Count Gurowski, 183-86
Election of 1864, 186-87
Lincoln and antislavery amendment, 187-89
Francis Preston Blair's visit to Richmond, 189-91
Robert E. Lee and Beauregard, 191-92
Petersburg, fall of Richmond, 193-96
Richmond, fire, slaves, poor whites, aristocrats, 196-205
Lincoln assassination, 204-5