

Wilson, William L. A Borderland Confederate. Edited by Festus P. Summers. Pittsburgh: University of Pittsburgh Press, 1962.

Kernstown, 7-8
Ashby, 7
Fishing, 11
Yankee spies, 12
Valley Turnpike, 12
Valley campaign, 11ff
Fall of New Orleans, 12
Battle of McDowell, 12-13
Accidental shooting death, 13
Religious services, 14
Stench of dead horses, 15
Front Royal, 15-16
Captured federal supplies, food, 16-17
Winchester, 17-18
Yankee prisoners, 18
Ashby, 19-28
Jackson retreating, 20
Port Republic, 21ff
Ashby and Ewell, 21
Death of Ashby, 21-28
Cross Keys, 21-22
Taken prisoner, 32
Imprisoned in Baltimore, Fort McHenry, 32-36, 46
Women sympathetic to Confederate prisoners, 34-35
Christmas, food, 35
Fort Monroe, 37
Petersburg in exchange camp guarded by Confederates, 38
Small pox in Richmond, 39
Grumble Jones, 41
Camp guard, 43
Scarcity of medicine, health, 44
Postal problems, 45-46
Inauguration of Davis, 48
War and health, 53-54
North will try to starve us out, 54
Richmond bread riot, 55
Congressional election, 55
Cavalry raid into western Virginia, 57-65
Horses, 68
Food prices, 68
Virginia elections quiet, 1863, 68
Chancellorsville, 69-70
Death of Stonewall Jackson, 69-70

Providence and war, faith in various generals, 70
Stuart, Brandy Station, 71-
Robert E. Lee, 71
Coming campaign season, 77
Lee confidence in coming campaign, 78
Overland campaign, 79ff
Rumor of Stuart's death, 79
Great confidence in Lee, men being well fed, 80
Death seen in all forms, many dead Yankees, 80
Yankees have stripped the country, 81
Gloom at beginning of 1865, 85-86
University of Virginia, 91
Petersburg and Richmond, burning cotton and supplies, 94
Jefferson Davis, 94
Dirty Confederate seizes trunk and does complete change of clothes, 97
Farmville, women trying to escape, 101-2
Appomattox, surrender of Army of Northern Virginia, 104-6