

Foster, Barham Bobo. A South Carolina Upcountry Saga: The Civil War Letters of Barham Bobo Foster and His Family, 1860-1863. Edited by A. Gilbert Kennedy. Columbia: University of South Carolina Press, 2019.

3rd South Carolina Infantry
Secession, 11-14
Christmas, 11
Smallpox vaccination, 11-12
Camp Ruffin, Columbia, 16ff
Clothing, uniforms, 19-20
Guard duty, alcohol, 20-22
Sermon chaplain, 22-23
Governor Francis Pickens, politics of regiments, 24
Chaplain, 26
Call for volunteers, 27
Uniforms, 27
Regiment refused to go to Virginia, secession, 28
Homesickness, no fighting, 29
Healthy men trying to get furlough, 30
Daily routine, 30-31
Discipline, alcohol, 31-32
Marriage, 32
Tents, 33
Moving camp, 34
Prospects for Kentucky secession, 34-35
Underage volunteer, 35
Wants business carrying boxes to camp, 36
Health, water, 38
Fears Governor Pickens working against regiment going to Virginia, 39
Departure for Virginia, 41
Jefferson Davis and Beauregard, 45
Drill and near shooting accident, 46
Virginia convention, 46
Women in camp, 46
Men in Virginia weak in hospitality and patriotism, 47-48
Prices, 49
Prisoners, 49
Patriotic Richmond women, 51
Bull Run, Jefferson Davis, 54
Good soldiers quite determined, 55
Army progressing and worries about not having battle, 57
Ignore newspaper rumors, 59
Beauregard threatened to hang young man who wrote to the Mercury, 61-62
Dead soldiers, uncertain burial, 63
Prisoners, 64
Picket firing, 65

Soldiers almost too prepared for Yankee advance, 66
Food, 66
Duty, confidence, 67
False reports in newspapers, 67
Big Bethel, 68
Confidence in Confederate cause, God, 69-70
Chaplain, 70
Federal advance on Fairfax, 72
Battle of Bull Run, 72-81
Clothing, uniforms, 82
Many new Confederate volunteers, 82
Siege of the Potomac, local people, Union sharpers, 83
Restrictions on sending telegrams after a battle, 85
South Carolinians visit, chaplain, prayer meeting, 85
Need for faith during the war, 86
God with Confederates at Bull Run, 86
Scott, Federals after Bull Run, 87
In God's service in cause of human freedom, 88
McClellan, peace party in the North, 89
Measles, 89
Artillery fire, 90-91
Faithful slave, 91
Women, food, helping sick soldiers, 91
Measles, 92, 94
Women and care for the sick, 92
Peace movements in the North, 93
Picket fighting, 96
Beauregard, 96
Important cause but dullness of camp life, 97
Typhoid, 98
Possible conscription, 99-100
Victory at Manassas, contempt for Yankees and believe that God is on our side, 100
Health of regiment, 100
Uniforms, 101
Illness in regiment, 101-2
False alarm on Yankee advance, 102
Challenge to a duel, 103
God and duty of the soldier, 104
Effeminate young man unfit to be a soldier, 105
Food, conflict over distribution of rations, 108
Arlington Heights, close to Washington, 109
Camp slave runs away, 109
Too much baggage, clothing, 110-11
Sword, 111
Camp slave, 114
Thinks Yankees will act on the defensive, 115

Severe cold and convalescing in Charlottesville, University, kind treatment, 116-119, 122-25
Munson's Hill, skirmishing, 119
Thinks soldiers in Union army would readily disband, 119-20
Camp slaves, 120
Health of soldiers, 121
Women and kind treatment of soldiers, 129
Trying to draw Yankees out from Washington, Lewinsville, 132-33, 137
Munson's Hill, 135
Duty, patriotism, money, 135
Camp slave homesick, 136
Women and food for soldiers, 136
Rich Mountain, 137
Food, rations, 139
Clothing, 140
Hospitals, 141
Marching, unsure of what it means, 144
Winter quarters, 144ff
Ball's Bluff, 146-47
Routine, women working for the soldiers, 148
Photographs, 149
Battle flag, 150
Rumors about Scott, Cameron, and Seward, McClellan, 151
Lincoln and Davis, peace rumors, 151
Superior Yankees guns, Port Royal, 152-53
Centreville, 152ff
Troop review, Beauregard, 159
Contented, duty, 160
Too many men want to be officers, 160
Mumps, 161-62
Generals still expecting a battle, 162
Woman writes not to take prisoners but kill them all, 163
Battle flag, 163.
Beauregard a strong Catholic, prayers before battle, 163
Chaplain, no preaching, 164
Picket duty, 165
Winter quarters, 165
Disgraceful stampede of low country aristocracy, 165-66
McClellan's men sick and demoralized, 166
Pneumonia, dying soldiers, 167
Dranesville, 169-70
Charleston fire, 170-71
Christmas, food prices, 171-72
Upcountry troops have difficulties in low country, 172-73
Murder, 173, 176
Conscription, overseer exemption, medical discharge, 173-74
Brigade not inclined to reenlist, 175

Christmas, 176
 Homespun dress, economy, 176
 Food prices, 177
 Engagements at home, 179
 Rations, food, 180
 Army in good spirits, bonds, northern economy, 183
 Chaplain, need for him to return, Christians in the army, 184
 Need for prayer, 184
 Alcohol, 184
 Snow, 185
 Complains about lack of generosity of lowcountry aristocracy, 187
 Mill Springs, 189
 Instructions to sister on study and writing a letter right handed, 192
 Snow, 192
 Winter quarters, cabins, 193
 Roanoke Island, 194
 Reenlistment, 196-97
 Fort Donelson, 197
 Rumors of Confederate retreat from Centreville, 198
 People need to wake up, more fighting, less talking, God does not reward the sluggard, 200
 Hard time since leaving camp, marching, 205-6
 Governor Pickens proclamation, recruiting, reenlistment, 207-9
 Rumors of being moved to North Carolina, Burnside, Roanoke Island, 209-210
 Railroad trip of new recruits, 212-13
 Camp life in South Carolina, 214
 Wild game, shooting, 215
 Sand flies and mosquitoes, soldier's face, 216
 Shiloh, 217
 Cooking, 217
 Fort Pulaski, 218
 Peninsula campaign, 221ff
 Yorktown, 221
 Dam No. 1, 221-223
 Pneumonia and typhoid at home, 224
 Williamsburg, 224, 227
 Confident, Yankees being whipped on Peninsula and in the Valley, strategy, Williamsburg, 230-31
 Fortifications, batteries, Richmond, 232
 Expects a siege, 233, 236
 Men captured on picket duty, 235
 Cooking, need for camp slave, 235
 Balloons, 235-36
 Fair Oaks, Seven Pines, 238-40
 Possible Confederate strategy, 241
 Wants word of the Sunday school, 242
 Wounded soldier, 243

Drill, 244
Water, camp diarrhea, 245
Skirmish at Fair Oaks, casualties, 246-47
Endurance of camp life, 248
Sleeping without shelter, 251
Oak Grove, 251
Seven Days, 251-261
Mechanicsville, casualties, 253-54
Savage's Station, casualties, 255-60
Malvern Hill, Kershaw's brigade, 260-62, 265
Rumors that Magruder was drunk, 262
Union camps filthy, disease, 264
Sermon, war speech, 264
Foreign intervention, 265
Hot marches, 265-66
Confederate better infantry soldiers, Federal better artillerists, 266
Vicksburg, Arkansas, 267
Concern for wounded soldiers, 268-69
Wounded soldiers, 270-71
Not anxious for another battle, 274
Death at hospital, 274
Swollen arm, 275ff
Stay at homes, gangs, 277
Furloughs impossible, 277
Cedar Mountain, 279
Speculation about McClellan and Pope, 282
Slave mortality, 282
Furlough application, 283-84
Harpers Ferry, 286-88
Condolence letters on death of son, 288-92
Death of son at Harper's Ferry, 294
Improvement in drill, 295
Clothes, uniforms, 295-96
Women should make bed items and other clothing for the soldiers, 296, 299
South Carolina elections, 297
Shoes, 297
Marching, 297-98
Chimera of foreign intervention, 299
Does not expect a fight, 300-1
Smallpox, vaccination, 301
Fredericksburg campaign, 302ff
Pickets, can see Yankees across the Rappahannock, 302
Conscription, desertion, 302
Shoes, 303
7th South Carolina Infantry, 303
Fears morale at home and unwillingness to serve, secession, officers, patriotism, 303-4

Shoes, ragged soldiers, 304

Books, 306

Rumor of McClellan arrest, 307

Shoes, 307

Smallpox, 308

Governor Pickens, fears reconstruction, but soldiers opposed, 309

Death of Lewis Perrin Foster, and condolence letters, 310-317

Deaths, Chancellorsville, 320

Death of a Christian soldiers, 322-23