

Headley, John W. Confederate Operations in Canada and New York. New York: Neale Publishing, 1906.

Much general and derivative material

Election of Lincoln and secession, Frémont, 19-27

Bull Run, 28

Kentucky, 29ff

Enlistment, 30

Forrest, Mill Springs, 31-34

Forrest, Fort Donelson, 35-43

Tuscumbia, 44-45

Cavalry skirmishes, 45-46

Jackson Valley campaign, 47-50

Bragg, John Hunt Morgan, Buell, Kentucky campaign, 51-54

Perryville, 55-60

Bragg and poor generalship, 61

Cavalry skirmishes, Clarksville, 62-67

Joins John Hunt Morgan, 67

Shortages suffered by soldiers, 68-69

Clarksville, 69-71

Foraging, 70ff

Discontent with Bragg, Hardee, 73-75

Clarksville, Mrs. Batson, taken prisoner, escape, 76-84

Taken prisoner again, taken to Nashville, pass out of Nashville, escape, 84-96

Forrest, Wheeler, Palmyra, Donelson, Morgan, 96-105

Streight's raid, Forrest, 106-112

Conduct of Union raiders in various states, from official sources, 113-21

Raid, western Kentucky, recruitment, fight at Dixon, Tennessee, 122-30

Bragg, retreat from Shelbyville, Chattanooga, Wheeler, 131

Morgan's raid into Indiana and Ohio, 131-38

Colonel Robert M. Martin, Morgan's Cavalry, 139-45

Colonel Martin's expedition into Kentucky, losses of horses and equipment, 146-160

Journey to Alabama, 161

Black soldiers, 161-62

Recounts troop movements through Kentucky and into Tennessee, Alabama, 163-67

Guntersville, Alabama, 168

Guerrillas, 168ff

Nashville, Confederate woman, 170-73

Looking for route for Morgan to do a surprise advance on Nashville, 173

Kilpatrick-Dahlgren raid on Richmond, 175-85

Confederate soldiers desire vengeance for northern destructiveness, 184-85

Morgan raid into Virginia, Burbridge, 186-200

Morgan at Abingdon, Wheeler, Bragg, criticism of Morgan in Richmond, 201

Appointed for duty in Canada, 211

Forrest, 211-12

Journey to Toronto, 213-16

Mission to Canada, Jacob Thompson, Sons of Liberty, Democratic convention, attempt to release prisoners at Camp Douglas, 217-230
James Seddon instructions, 219
Vallandigham, 223
Plans to capture gunboat Michigan, one member captured and recognized as prisoner, Johnson's Island, 231-240
John Yates Beall, capture of ships on Lake Erie, attempts to release prisoners from Johnson's Island, long excerpts from a memoir of Beall, 241-55
St. Albans raid, prisoners, extradition, 256
Clement Clay, 257-63
Plots to burn Cincinnati, Philadelphia, Boston, plotting in New York, Jacob Thompson, election of 1864, 264-73
Attempt to burn New York, escape to Canada, Astor House, 274-83
Northwest conspiracy, plan at Chicago exposed, arrests, Jacob Thompson, trials and sentences, Judah Benjamin, 284-300
Buffalo, attempt to rescue Confederate generals, General Dix, capture of Captain Beall, 301-307
End of operations in Canada and departure of Confederates, many of the best men in prison, 308-312
Sherman's march, 312ff
Federal policy of destruction, 317-320
Trials, protests, detectives, Stanton, Robert C. Kennedy execution, 321-331
Sherman in South Carolina, Wade Hampton, burning of Columbia, 332-38
David Hunter in the Valley of Virginia, burning, 338-40
Trial of John Yates Beall, Confederate government and official acts, plea to Lincoln, Beall Executed, 340-369
Trial of Lieutenant Young, Montreal, Seward, 370-81
Plans to leave Canada, Jacob Thompson, Clement Clay, 382-389
Trying to reach Richmond, Kentucky, West Virginia, Tennessee, 390-95
Leaving Canada, Cincinnati, Louisville, on way to Virginia, 396-401
Plot to capture Andrew Johnson at a Louisville hotel, 402-410
Horses, escape from Louisville, Abingdon, Virginia, 411-424
Journey to Richmond, Petersburg and Richmond evacuated, Appomattox, detained at Lynchburg, escape, peace terms, 425-31
Cartel, Andrew Johnson, Johnston surrender, Jefferson Davis, Breckinridge, 432-37
Jefferson Davis a prisoner, arrest of Headley, presidential pardon, 438-50
Jefferson Davis, Clement Clay, postwar trials, 451-463
Results of war, conduct of both armies, 464-80