

Civil War Regiments: A Journal of the American Civil War 5, No. 1

Treasures from the Archives: Select Holdings from the Museum of the Confederacy

Robert T. Mockbee, “The Sun never shined on a braver & truer Set of Soldiers’: The 14th Tennessee Infantry Regiment”

Mustering in, 3-4

Eagerness to fight, 5

Measles, 5

Robert E. Lee, 6

Marching, heat, 6-7

Camp life at Huntersville, 8-10

Dance, 8

Disease, medical department, 9

Winter quarters, 10ff

Wounding by federal artillery fire, 12

1862 Valley campaign, 11ff

Lice, 13-14

Seven Days, 15-18

Second Manassas, 19-20

Antietam campaign, 20-22

Fredericksburg, 23-24

Chancellorsville, 25-26

Gettysburg, 26-30

Overland campaign, 32-37

Wilderness, 32ff

Henry Heth, 34

Petersburg, 37-39

Raleigh S. Camp, “Major Raleigh S. Camp’s History of the 40th Georgia Infantry in the Vicksburg Campaign”, 45-91

Vicksburg, 50ff

Chickasaw Bayou, 50-52

Port Gibson, 54ff

Champion’s Hill, 58ff

Charges of cowardice against the Georgians, 64

Yankees promised to $200 bounty to take Vicksburg, 66

Yankee morale, 67

Rumors, 68

Horses and mules starving, 68

Siege of Vicksburg, food, 71

Artillery and small arms fire, noise, 72

Sick and wounded, medical means, 73-74

Yankee artillery fire, 74-75

Sick, disease, food, 77-78

Johnston and Grant, 78

Soldiers killed, 79

Food, soldiers killed in lines, 80
Mules for food, 82
July 4, surrender of Vicksburg, 83-84
Paroled prisoners, furlough, 85-88

Selections from Documents in the Museum of the Confederacy Collections

General Benjamin Morgan Palmer, address to Washington Artillery, May 27, 1861—duty, liberty, fighting for freedom against barbarous foe, 94

Captain John B. Richardson pocket diary, Washington Artillery, First Manassas, 94
Robert Toombs, 107
Spy hanged, 107
Second Manassas, 107-8
Antietam, 108-9

Letters of George Apps and Fred Brode to Josephine Trinchard, 1861-1862, 4th Company, Washington Artillery,
Soldier pay, gambling, poker, 98
J. B. Wanton, 97-99
Food, 99
Short war, 101
Food prices, 102
Snow, cold weather, 103-4
Winter quarters, 104-5
Food, seasonal delicacies, 105
Hard-up Confederate at Christmas, 137
Box, what he wants sent from home, 138
Christmas and New Years, 138
Grant, Petersburgs, 142
Letters, 143-44
Winter quarters, 144-45
Christmas, 146-47
Purpose, duty, peace, independence, 148
Optimistic about Virginia, Grant, 149
Coal, wood, 150

Corporal Frank Dunbar Ruggles to his father, October 12, 1862
Motives for fighting, 111

Diary of Lt. Edward Owen,
Chancellorsville, 116-120
Prisoner, 120ff
Woman on horseback, 120-21
Old Capitol prison, armed blacks, 121

Forage for horses, 122
Gettysburg campaign, 122ff
Brandy Station, 123
Vicksburg rumors, 124
Ill soldier and death, 129-30

Death of M. Page Lapham, 141