

Hall, James E. The Diary of a Confederate Soldier. Edited by Ruth Woods Dayton. St. Martin, Oh.: Commonwealth Book Company, 2020.

Barbour Greys, Co. H, 31st Virginia Infantry
Philippi, Virginia, 11
Anticipates carnage and death, 11
Grafton, 12
Cooking, 14
Cheat River, western Virginia campaign, 16
Death of Garnett, McClellan, 17
Romney, 18
Notice to Yankee if diary is found, 19
Graves, 20
Captured wagons, horses, prisoners, 21
Does not expect to get home this winter, 22
Homesickness, 24
Food prices, 25
Vengeance against northern vandals, 26
Hospital tent blown down in storm, patients drenched, 27
Skirmish, casualties, 28-29
Picket guard, 28-29
Battlefield, blood, and dead Yankee, 30
Terrors of war, 31
Cold on picket duty, 31
Paid another soldier a dollar to take picket duty for him, 32
Picket firing, 32-33
Intelligent privates in the ranks, 33
Detailed to the post office, 33-34
Morale, discouraged, subjugation, 35
General Loring, would not volunteer again, 36
Fever, many neglected by fellow soldiers, 37
Retreat and destruction of property, 37-38
21st birthday, 38
Complains of exposure and mud, 39
Food prices, 40
Skirmishing, wounded suffering, 40-42
Christmas, 42-43
Baking pies, 43
Cabins, tents, 43-44
Soldiers swearing, 44
End of 1861, 44-45
Winter, 46
Roanoke Island, 48
Conscription, reenlistment, 52
Officer election, 52
Picket firing, men killed, 53

McDowell, Virginia, 54
 Without shoes, 56
 Front Royal, 57-58
 Early June 1862, fighting in the Valley, 59-61
 Seven Days, dead Yankees, 62
 Dreads marches, 64
 Fredericksburg, 66-67
 Food prices, 68
 Alcohol, 71-72
 Western Virginia, 74ff
 Battle of Greenbriar River, 75
 Peace, death of Stonewall Jackson, 78
 Shoes, 79
 Gettysburg, 82-83
 Wounded soldiers, 83
 Fort Delaware, 84ff
 Fall of Vicksburg, 86-87
 Christmas, 93
 End of 1863, 94
 Blacks guarding white prisoners, 96
 No prisoner exchange, race question, 98
 Tent, hut, 101
 Black soldiers guarding prisoners, 102
 Overland campaign, 104-5
 Rumor of Grant defeat, 108
 Gold prices, 109
 Food, 110
 Early raid on Washington, 110-11
 Tent, 111
 Prisoner exchange rumor, 112
 Good news on Lee vs. Grant, 114
 Black soldier killed a prisoner, 114-15
 Box, 117
 Despair, thinks of giving up diary, 121-22
 Tired of life, 122
 Hospital registering clerk, 122
 Christmas, 124
 Point Lookout, 125
 Furlough, 125-27
 Election day in Virginia, 128
 Fort Stedman, 128-29
 Heavy Yankee fire on Confederate works, 130
 Petersburg breakthrough, 132-33
 Rear guard of Lee's army, 134
 Lee surrender, 135-36
 Return home, 137-39