

Logan, David Jackson. "A Rising Star of Promise": The Civil War Odyssey of David Jackson Logan: 17th South Carolina Volunteers, 1861-1864. Edited by Samuel N. Thomas, Jr. and Jason Silverman. Campbell, Calif.: Savas Publishing, 1998.

Camp fever and very kindly nursing by woman, 5
Conscription and officers, 6
Charleston vicinity early in war, 6-7
Drilling and homesickness, 8
Hospital, women volunteers, 11-12
Service in South Carolina or outside, 19
South Carolina coastal operations, Secessionville, 21-28
Celebration of Seven Pines victory, 31
Price of slaves, bonds, cotton since battle of Secessionville, 32
Chaplain preaching, 33-34
Water, 39
Winder Hospital, 39
Bad wounded officer, 39
Yankee prisoners described, 40-41
Stolen whiskey, 40
Movement of Confederate troops toward Stonewall Jackson, 42
Second Manassas campaign, 43-48
Soldier deaths, disease, 44
Wound, 48
Woman and daughter raped by Yankees, 52
Sermon by Girardeau, chaplain, 23rd SC, 53, 66
Battle of Kinston, Shanks Evans, controversy, 53-65
Shanks Evans, 74-79
Ladies Relief society, 76
Religion in regiment, no chaplain, 76-77
Amusements and auction, 77
Dentist, 79
Snowball fight, 81-82
Wilmington, N.C., 84-85
Food, 85
Vicksburg campaign, 95-
Georgia women, 96
Jackson, Mississippi, 96-108
Murder of Earl Van Dorn, 100
Water, 99, 104, 109
Morale, 105-6
Morale, peace prospects, hard fighting, Yankees with upper hand, 111
Weak morale at home, money, 115-16
Alabama women, 117
Need for regular furloughs, 119
Officers living in fine houses, 122
Picket fraternization, 124

Yankees and attack on Charleston, 125-26
Jefferson Davis, visit to troops, 126
Conscription, 127
Slave purchase, 128
Confederate bonds, 129
Slaves working on fortification, 130
Memminger, taxes, currency, cotton, 132-33
Food, 139
Sullivan's Island casualties from bombardment including women, 140
Furlough, 141
Guarding Yankee prisoners, 144
Morale, Beauregard, moves in North Carolina, 145
Singing, When This Cruel War is Over, 145
Petersburg, 153ff
Howlett's Farm, 154-67
Capture of General W. S. Walker, 154-61
Shortage of provisions, illness, 161
Stephen Elliott, 161
Fraternization forbidden, 165
Food, money, prices, 165
Death of David Jackson Logan, 166-74