

Browning, Orville Hickman. Diary of Orville Hickman Browning. Edited by Theodore Calvin Peace and James G. Randall. 2 vols. Springfield: Illinois State Historical Library, 1925-1933.

Volume 1

Election of 1860, 435

New Year and religion, 446

Lincoln, 452

Lincoln and Washington Peace Conference, compromise, 453

Lincoln trip to Washington, 453ff

Indianapolis, 454-55

Browning and Lincoln inaugural, 455-56

St. Louis and Edward Bates on Federal forts, 457

Lincoln inauguration, 458

Fort Sumter, 462-63, 466-67

Lincoln proclamation and Union meeting, 463-64

Stephen A. Douglas, 465-66

Sending off volunteers, 470

Browning and Lincoln's July 1861 message, 475-76

Fort Sumter, 476

War policy, Lincoln and slavery question, 477-78

Burnside, 480

Military policy, impatience, 481

Johnson-Crittenden resolutions on war, 483-84, 486-87

Bull Run, 484-85

Brigadier general appointments, 487-88

Lincoln melancholy, foreign policy, 488-89

Edward Bates writings on condition of the country, 492

Senate, drunken senators, 493

Illinois generals, 497

Fremont proclamation, 502-4

Lincoln and compensated emancipation, 512

Mason and Slidell, 513-14

Lincoln and Edward Baker, 514-15

Arbitrary arrests, 515

McClellan, 515-16.

Lincoln and Trent affair, 516-19

Frank Blair and Seward, 520

Reflections on New Year, 521

Cameron, minister to Russia, Trumbull opposition, 524-25

Death of Willie Lincoln, 530-31

Merrimack excitement, Lincoln, Stanton, 532-33

Confiscation bill, 533-34

Cornelius Vanderbilt and Lincoln, 535

Lincoln, slavery, and emancipation in Washington, 541

Lincoln and poetry, 542-43

Fugitive slave law in D.C. Lamon, 549-50

Alexander T. Stewart, McClellan, Lincoln, 552
Lincoln, Confiscation and slavery, 555
Emancipation Proclamation, 361-62
Seward and relations with England and France, 562-63
Slavery and Union, 567
Slavery and gradual emancipation, 570
Browning speech on the state of the country, 571, 573
Shiloh, 575
Presbyterians and emancipation, 576-77
Colonization, 577
Emancipation and the political parties, 578
Army and slaves, 578-79
Guerrillas, 581
Election of 1862, 582
Samuel R. Curtis, 583
General Ogsby, soldiers, slavery, Grant, 583-84
Rosecrans, 584
Fears war in free states if Lincoln gives up control to radicals, 586-87
Fessenden and Emancipation Proclamation, 387-88
Charles Sumner criticized, 388
Emancipation Proclamation and election, 388-89
Pope, Porter and Halleck, 389
McClellan and Burnside and Lincoln, 389-90
Lincoln's annual message, 591
Pope, Grant, McClellan, 591
Emancipation Proclamation, habeas corpus, elections, Thomas Ewing, Chase, 592
Sabbath dinner parties, 592
John C. Fremont, 593
Naval yard, 594
Cassius Clay, 595
Mary Lincoln, 595-96
West Virginia, 596
Fredericksburg, 596
Cabinet crisis, Lincoln, Seward, 597-604
Blair, McClellan, 601
Lincoln and Emancipation Proclamation, 606-7
Mary Lincoln and spiritualism and cabinet, 608-9
Emancipation Proclamation, Lincoln, and Seward, 609
Emancipation Proclamation, Admiral Foote, and McClellan, 611.
Senator Hale and the slavery question, 612
Colonization, 612
Selling cotton and Stanton, 615-16
David Davis, Emancipation Proclamation, and the cabinet, 616-17
Emancipation Proclamation, Seward, condition of the army, 618-19
Removal of Burnside, Hooker, McClellan, 619
Recruiting an army, 619-20

Senator Saulsbury and trouble in Senate, 620
Lincoln and Emancipation Proclamation, 625
Hooker and McClellan, 629
Arbitrary arrests, 631
Suppression of Chicago Times, Burnside, 632-33
Vicksburg, 636
Lincoln and Todd relatives, 651
New Years receptions, 653
Lincoln and Browning and widow whose slaves had been taken by the army, 659
Kentucky affairs and slave soldiers, 665
Grant, Lee, and coming campaign, 668
Lincoln and Grant's army, 673-74
Early raid on Washington, 675-76
Halleck, Stanton, Lincoln, and Montgomery Blair, 677
Atlanta and presidential election of 1864, reconciliation, conservative reconstruction, 680-83
Taney, Chase, Lincoln, 686-87
Stanton, 687-88
Lincoln, Canby, Hurlbut, and Louisiana affairs, 692
Peace negotiations and slavery, 693-94, 699

Volume 2

President, execution, Lincoln depressed, 7-8
Inaugural, Andrew Johnson, 9
Cotton trade, Stanton, 10-14
Lincoln assassination, 18-20
Assassination sermon, 21
Lincoln funeral, 23