

Burns, William S. Recollections of the 4th Missouri Cavalry. Edited by Frank Allen Dennis. Dayton: Morningside, 1988.

4th Missouri Cavalry, Union

Enlistment, 8-

Thurlow Weed, Seward, Lorenzo Thomas, 9

Washington, Andrew Johnson, Charles Sumner, 9

Vallandigham and Frank Blair, 10-11

Lebanon, Missouri, 18ff

Took over doctor's office, 18-19

Raid, guerrillas, 19-20

Sigel, Sterling Price, 21ff

Wilson's Creek, Pea Ridge, 22-23

Fayetteville, McCulloch, 25-27

Pea Ridge, 28-36

Indians, 29

Escaped slaves, 35

Drunken lieutenant kills a soldier, 37

Batesville, 38

Spy, 40-41

Southern women, slaves, 42

Scouting, 44

Round Hill skirmish, casualties, 45

Scout, guerrillas, cotton burners, 48

Cotton selling, 49

Pilot Knob, 50-51

Thanksgiving, 52

Confederate mail carrier captured and murdered, 54

Food, 55

Confederate prisoners, Fort Delaware, 56-57

Assistant inspector general, 58ff

Fort Henry, one Unionist family, 59-60

Grant, 61-62

Fort Pillow, 62

Nathan Bedford Forrest, 63

Christmas food, Confederate woman, 64

Sleeping in a stable, cold, 65

7th Indiana Cavalry destroying a private home, court martial, 65

Scouts and spies, 65

Guerrillas, 66

Fence rails, 66

Vicksburg, 68

Meridian expedition, 69-72

William T. Sherman, 71-73

Dogs, 73

Soldiers stealing peanuts from women, 73-74

Fugitive slaves, 74-75
Red River campaign, 76-119
Fort De Russy, 79-81
Abuse of slaves, 83-84
Pleasant Hill, 85-
Hospital, 87
Retreat, 98ff
Banks, A. J. Smith 107 et passim, 114-119
Alexandria, 111ff
Governor Moore, 113
Passage of gunboats over the falls at Alexandria, 119
Fire in Alexandria, 120
Bridge constructed, 122
General Marmaduke, 124-25
Sturgis stampede, Tupelo, Forrest, Brice's 126ff
Confederates and black troops, 130-31
Pontotoc, Forrest, 131
A. J. Smith and teamsters, 132
Mower and Grierson, 136
Oxford, Mississippi, Jacob Thompson's wife, University of Mississippi, 140-45
Fugitive slave, 151-52
Red River campaign, 152-53