

McCorkle, John. Three Years with Quantrill: A True Story Told by His Scout John McCorkle.
Edited by Albert Castel. Norman: University of Oklahoma Press, 1992.

Biographical background on McCorkle, 31
Missouri State Guards, 32
Stolen arms and disbanding, 33
Joined Sterling Price, 33
Became part of 7th Missouri Cavalry, State Guards, 34
Friendly fire, 34
Wilson's Creek, 33-35
James Lane threatens to kill him, 36
Jennison, 37
Captured and nearly executed by Federals near Springfield, he and his brother took the oath, 38-48
Lice, 45
Mistreatment by Federal soldiers, wanted to be a peaceful citizen but was constantly harassed, 49
Accused of singing Confederate songs, 50
James Lane, Lawrence, Kansas, 53
William Clark Quantrill, wounded, brother killed, slave stealing, 53-56
Beginning of war, Quantrill searching for Jayhawkers, clash with Federals, Independence, Missouri, destroying Federal camps, 56-64
Lone Jack, Jennison, Cole Younger, various clashes, 65-72
Attack on Federal provision train, 73-74
Black man with the guerrillas wounded, 75
Fort Smith, 75
Cane Hill?, 76
General Shelby, 77
Forced a Home guard to lead them to Sims Point, 81-82
Joined Quantrill in August 1862, 83
Returns home in winter to find Federals had driven, suspicions of a traitor and spy, skirmish with Federals, Cole Younger, northern Methodist minister, shot him, routing a company of Federals, 84-96
Intercepting a Federal stage, 96-98
Release of honorable Federal prisoners, 98-102
Taking vengeance on a Federal for hanging one of Quantrill's men, 102-4
Cedar creek bull pen, 113
Big Creek, scattering Federals, 114
Chasing and being chased by Federals, 115
Bill Anderson joined the company, 119
Federal atrocities, women placed in a jail that collapsed, justified raid on Lawrence, 119-23
Raid on Lawrence, Kansas, black soldiers, James Lane, Jennison, 124-29
Ewing order, expelling Missourians from border counties, 132-33
Fort Scott, 134
Food, 135
Baxter Springs, 136
Troublesome black man shot, 141-42

Confederate Indian brigade, 143
Crossing the Arkansas River, 145
Wolves eat dead body, 146
Food, 148-49
Clash with the 2nd Colorado, casualties, 152-54
Jackson County skirmishes, 155-56
Prison escape, Alton, Illinois, 156-57
Federal murder his uncle who had a son with Quantrill, 157-58
Disagreement on what to attack, Quantrill, Fayette, Howard County, 159-62
Centralia skirmish, 162-66
Quantrill shots one of his men had been robbing people, 168-69
Alcohol, 172
German soldiers, Captain Todd, 172-76
Bill Anderson, 173-74
General Marmaduke, 178
Wild plan to go through north in Federal uniforms, reached Kentucky, 180-88
Meeting with Federals disguised as Federals, stealing horses, 190
Plundering Danville, 193-94
Harrodsburg, skirmish, 194-98
Leaving Quantrill, Quantrill's death, Frank James, 205-13