

Hoadley, John Chipman. Memorial of Henry Sanford Gansevoort. Boston: Franklin Press, 1875.

Officer appointment, 88-89
Washington, 87ff
Bull Run, 93-94
Sharpshooters, artillery officers, 94
McClellan, 95
Alcohol, 95
Duty, right, nature of the war, 95-96
Harrisburg, 97
Duty, routine, 99
Severe discipline, 99-100
Injured in horse accident, 100-1
Christmas, 102
War is now fashionable, 102-3
Pittsburgh, 106
Washington, 107-8
Artillery battery, 108-13
Hampton, Virginia, 113
General Wool, 115
Destruction in Army of the Potomac track, 115-16
Williamsburg battlefield, 120
Whiskey ration, 121-22
Fair Oaks, 122-23
Seven Days, Regulars vs. Volunteers, 125
Second Bull Run campaign, 132-33
Antietam campaign, 134-36
Experience of battle, 137
Removal Burnside appointment of Hooker, 140
Union side divided but Confederates united, 140-41
Discipline and condition of cavalry, 145
Gettysburg, New York Draft riots, 146
Malaria, fever, 148
Mosby, 149
Cavalry carbine, 155-56
Absent soldiers, 156-57
Mosby, 158-59
Underestimated strength of the South, women, 160
Petersburg, Early campaign toward Washington, 162-63
Cavalry, Picket, guard duty, excessive duty, 165-68
Mosby wounded, 173
Democratic party, rumors of treatment of black man in his camp, 174
1864 election, voting in camp, denies promoting votes for Democrats, 179-81
Captured Mosby's saber and equipment, 182-84
Captures some Mosby's artillery, 186

Party spirit runs high, has criticized military measures but not the politics of the administration, 188

Accused of being a Copperhead, 189

Money taken from deserters, 192

Lincoln Assassination, Cavalry search for Booth and conspirators, 197